

DisCourse is the consulting branch of DisArt, an organization believes that expressions of a Disabled cultural identity can transform society from awareness to understanding to belonging, creating a community that enjoys the full and equitable participation of all Disabled people.

We invite you to take a look at the services we offer our clients to see how we might best serve you and your organization. Below you will find examples of our most utilized services; please note however that each of our clients is approached in a unique fashion, one that is tailor-made to the specific issues they are working through.

Service Area #1 Awareness: DisCourse is committed to helping clients gain historically, culturally, and aesthetically grounded understandings of Disability culture. These services offer introductory knowledge and training.

Examples of DisCourse Offerings:

- Introductory Disability Cultural Competency Workshops for Leadership, Staff, Volunteers, Funders, and/or Board Members
- Introductory Workshop: Creating Access Design Infrastructures
- Evaluation of Disability Cultural Competency in the Workplace
- Access-Forward Promotion and Training Podcast by DisTopia
- Keynote and Other Public Presentations

Service Area #2 Understanding: Helping clients interact with the cultural values of Disability, paying particular attention to the multiple ways that the work they do intersects with physical and mental differences. These services offer internalization of concepts learned with a move towards strategic planning.

Examples of DisCourse Offerings:

- Website, Event, Venue, Marketing/Communications, and Portfolio Audits
- Disability Cultural Values Workshop and Discovery Sessions with Leadership, Staff, Volunteers, Funders, and/or Board Members
- Evaluation of the Integration of Disability Cultural Values in the Workplace
- Organizational and Board Development incorporating Disability Cultural Values
- Access Design Strategies and Infrastructure Development
- Keynote and Other Public Presentations

Service Area #3 Belonging: Helping clients produce systems and processes based on new levels of awareness and understanding of Disability culture. Organizational coaching will assist organizations committed to integrating Disability cultural values and access design strategies into all aspects of their organization and/or project. These services offer implementation, monitoring of progress, and evaluation of effectiveness.
